Recent sales and offers made of Bajardo colts show that the stock is greatly in demand. The prices seem high, given below, but are considered by those who are judges in such matters only a fair valuation of them. A year old of the stock sold at public auction at Eastville was bid off at $235. One 6 months old sold at sale of James Humphreys, deceased, brought $106 and the purchaser has since declined an offer of $150 for him, and of $90 for a half interest. Two others were sold recently near Bell Haven for $100 and $70, and Mr. Wm. Coxton, of Drummondtown lately has become the purchaser of another year old Bajardo colt at the price of
